Resort launches new website with live cam and webcasts

ATLANTA (March 13, 2007) – Lake Lanier Islands Resort launched a new website - www.lakelanierislands.com – this week with brand new features. The website now encompasses the new “Escape to Georgia’s Great Lake” theme and the latest website technology.

Some of the new features include:

- New navigation scheme designed to move users through every aspect of the resort and its amenities;
- Live web cam on the 18th hole of Pinelsle Golf Club, which streams live video;
- Webcasts, including audio interviews with managing owner of the resort, Virgil R. Williams, hotel video tours and streaming video of past and current television commercials; and
- Current and recent Newsletters.

“As seasons change we will rotate live cameras at all of our venues to showcase our Resort,” said Grier Todd, General Manager of the Resort. “Pictures may speak a thousand words, but a live video puts you in the action. Seeing people enjoying the sun, splashing down a waterslide, or playing the 18th green alongside the glistening waters of the Lake should entice anyone to come experience Georgia’s Great Lake,” he said.
