Beach & Waterpark Opens at Lake Lanier Islands Resort Summer begins at the Islands on Saturday, May 17

Lake Lanier Islands Resort's Beach & WaterPark® kicks off the summer season just 45 minutes northeast of downtown Atlanta. The only water park on Georgia's Great Lake™, the Beach & WaterPark opens at 10 a.m. for weekends only this Saturday, May 17. Beginning Thursday May 22, the Beach & WaterPark will be open daily. This year, the Beach & WaterPark will be closed on Mondays, excluding holidays.

There are more than 100 ways to get wet, including the FunDunker® and Georgia's largest wave pool – Wild Waves. Thrill seekers may test the limits on the Intimidator, Twister, SplashDown, and Triple Threat. Little ones have a blast splashing around the Kiddie Lagoon featuring Wiggle Waves, its wave pool designed especially for kids. Finally, relax and escape on the mile-long, sandy white beach overlooking the lake, something you will not find within a few hours drive of Atlanta.

Daily entry into the Beach & WaterPark is $27.99 Tuesday-Friday and $29.99 Saturday and Sunday plus tax. A family of three season pass is available at a $20 discount and individual season passes are available for a $5 discount if purchased before May 31, 2008. Daily admission tickets, season passes and Lake Lanier Islands Resort parking decals are available at the Beach & WaterPark gate or online at www.lakelanierislands.com.
